

In Vivaldi's day, Venice was famous across Europe for its magnificent processions. It is this atmosphere of festivities, amongst popular devotional songs sung in unison and polyphony revived from long ago that Vincent Dumestre recreates. Excitement gives way to contemplation, crowned by the wonderful masterpiece by Vivaldi, made famous by our countertenors but probably written for a young female pupil at the ospedale della Pietà – here performed by the brilliant Eva Zaïcik, a prize-winner of the Voix Nouvelles classical singing competition, the Victoires de la musique and the Queen Elisabeth competition.

Teaser : <https://youtu.be/6pH5gBXJOi0>

NISI DOMINUS VIVALDI

Avec

eva zaïcik serge goubioud martial pauliat igor bouin

orchestre du Poème Harmonique
vincent dumestre direction

TEAM : 23 PERSONNES

5 soloists - 14 instrumentalists - 1 conductor
1 technician - 1 production - 1 admin
Organ, double bass & harpsichord to be provided + tuning

« One of the best versions of the psalm we have never heard. »

R-C.Travers - Diapason

« A Sublime album »

L.Mézan - Radio Classique

LPH
LE POÈME HARMONIQUE
Vincent Dumestre